Dear Jack,

Enclosed is my expense account for the trip to New York, for the week prior and the few days since.

I have delivered your messages. I am afraid he feels very unhappy about us.

For some reason or other the checks you promised would be here yesterday or today haven't arrived. Will you please wave your magic wand? Thanks.

By the way, have you noticed what has happened to our "exclusive" rubber story? All the papers have it.

Yours

Harold Weisberg
